

Stephen P. Magee Short

magee@mail.utexas.edu Mobile (512) 656-6666

Professor of Finance and Economics
University of Texas at Austin

President, Magee and Magee

1801 Lavaca St #10E
Austin, TX 78701

Areas of Expertise Based on Prof. Magee's Academic Research and Teaching (clients for whom he has testified in parentheses)

Patents: reasonable royalties and lost profits (Microsoft, HP, Cisco, Amazon, Exxon, Dow, Via, BP, AFC, Western Union, Tyco, Becton Dickinson, Mondis, LinkedIn)
Damages (Exxon, Hewlett-Packard, Major US Paper Companies, Time Warner Cable, TX v Walmart)
Antitrust (Dow Chemical, DuPont, MM Steel - $156 million award achieved)
Class Certification (7 Hollywood Movie Studios; $175 million insurance case)
Energy (ExxonMobil, Chevron, Amoco, Baker Hughes, Weatherford International)
Security valuation (CenterPoint-Texas Genco ($2.4 billion), Republic Waste, Tidel, Crossroads)
Public utility regulation (CenterPoint-Texas Genco, Constellation New Energy)

Other

White House staff, 1972-1973
Economic adviser to four Presidential administrations
U.S. Secretary of Commerce, Economic Advisory Board
National Science Foundation Committee for Economics
Nine time Co-captain & player, U.S. National Soccer Champions, 1999-2001; 2005-2010

PhD in economics from MIT, 1969
Bayless/Enstar Chairholder & Prof. of Finance & Economics, UT Austin, 1976-
Chairman of the Department of Finance at UT Austin, 1980-1984
Asst Professor, University of California, Berkeley, 1969-71
Assoc Professor, University of Chicago 1971-76; Visiting 1990, 1991 and 1997
Associate Editor for five academic journals

Co-authored Black Hole Tariffs, a book was endorsed on the cover by two Nobel laureates in economics and the Chairman of the Nobel Committee, Assar Lindbeck
Selected best professor, teaching the first year of MBA Program, 1980 and 2000
Selected top researcher, career contributions, Graduate School of Business, 1990

Author of over 80 academic articles and three books
In 2003, Federal Reserve Chairman Alan Greenspan quoted Magee's still-current 1969 research explaining the 40 year decline in the US trade balance
NY Times columnist and Nobel Laureate Paul Krugman cited Magee's trade-balance effect as "one of the most important empirical regularities in all of economics"
In 2003, presented paper on capitalism & the information revolution before Castro & 1000 economists in Havana, Cuba and then met with Castro for over an hour